Building Sustainable Leadership

An International School Leadership Conference
9 to 10 August 2010
Birchwood Hotel, Boksburg, Gauteng

The Catholic Institute of Education intends bringing Catholic school principals and other school leaders together for an International School Leadership Conference. Leading thinkers in the field of leadership have been invited to present papers and conduct seminars.

The purpose of the conference is to:

- Initiate a debate on the identity and purpose of Catholic schools in South Africa;
- Strengthen the network of Catholic schools through sharing of experience;
- Encourage Catholic schools to play a more active role in the public education system.

The conference will commence on the morning of 9 August and end on the afternoon of 10 August 2010.

Keynote address: Prof Patrick Duignan, Emeritus Professor, Australian Catholic University and Director Leading to Inspire.

Invited speakers: Chief Rabbi Goldstone, Prof Jonathan Jansen, Prof Brahm Fleisch, Dr Claudine Storbeck and others.
